

SHOT and CONSEQUENCE

1. Work Cornerstone Program to the satisfaction of your counselor. This includes attendance to IOP without unexcused absence. Family meeting with counselor to determine appropriate consequence, which may include moving out of house.
2. Complete honesty in all things. This includes no omissions of truth, half-truths, deception, stealing, etc. Come clean immediately. Being caught without coming clean requires that you move out of house. If caught being dishonest, move out of house until 30 days of measurable honesty has been achieved.
3. Maintain sobriety from drugs, alcohol. This includes not abusing prescribed medications. Move out of house.
4. Respect our home, people and property at all times. Respect includes no physical or verbal abuse of our home, people or property. Leave room for cooling off period. Once cool, discuss situation that caused you to feel angry enough to violate this SHOT. Physical abuse/damage may require moving out.
5. Stick with winners based on list from your counselor. All CS events attended must include at least 2 winners. Absolutely no association with old friends.
Family meeting with counselor to determine appropriate consequence, which may include moving out of house.
6. Respect the personal space, privacy and possessions of others Repair or replace. Loss of privileges and amends to be determined.
